

SUBMIT YOUR STORY FOR UPCOMING ISSUES

Do you have words of experience, strength and hope to share about staying sober through hard times?

A story about being of service or about having fun in sobriety?

A question the newcomer might like answered?

If so, please send to OrangeAAid@gmail.com. We want to hear from you.

STEP 6

“Were entirely ready to have God remove these defects of character”

“...[A]ny person capable of enough willingness and honesty to try repeatedly Step Six on all his faults—without any reservations whatever—has indeed come a long way spiritually..”

Orange County Share-A-Day 2021 is in the planning stages and we need your help! If you have ideas or would like to volunteer, please contact Willoe at Willoe57@gmail.com

Talking with a sponsor or another sober member before handling a situation all on our own can make a big difference. Whether it's because emotions are high, or because other perspectives and approaches exist that we haven't yet considered, talking with another AA can give us that moment of pause to let God in. With the AA principles at hand, we can make better choices and build better relations with everyone we meet.

- I'M SORRY -
FOR WHAT I SAID
BEFORE I CALLED
MY SPONSOR

Tradition 6— "An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, and prestige divert us from our primary purpose."

TRADITION 6—LONG FORM

"Our A.A. experience has taught us that:

...An A.A. group, as such, should never go into business. While [it] may cooperate with anyone, such cooperation ought never to go so far as affiliation or endorsement, actual or implied. An A.A. group can bind itself to no one."

- Twelve Steps & Twelve Traditions, p. 190

"Show me a big book that's falling apart, and I'll show you a person who isn't."

AA Phone Service - Available Shifts

The 5th of every month is now OPEN and we are in need of a group to volunteer to cover the 24-hour hotline. For more info or to help, contact Tommy at phoneservicerep@gmail.com
